

Nancy Vitale serves on numerous charitable, nonprofit, and political boards among them the Los Angeles Hispanic Republican Club. She is a Committee Member in the 69th Assembly District for the Republican Party of Los Angeles County. The eldest of seven children, Nancy was born in Connecticut into a loving, devoted, hard-working family and has one daughter Rebekah.

Nancy's board fundraising efforts at her local YMCA and AR&C - Long Beach for the Advocacy for Respect and Choice for Adults with Intellectual Disabilities bring her a real sense of making a difference and having an substantive impact in the lives of others.

Nancy's 'Passion for Politics' stems from reading her father's books, often biographies of political figures, and helping him run for a seat in the Connecticut State Assembly legislature in 1972. After meeting John Goya (descendent of the famous painter from Spain) in 2012, Nancy served as Campaign Director in Goya's 2014 CA State Assembly race in the 70thAD which resulted in a Primary win against an opponent from a political family dynasty.

Nancy's professional work experience was in the Healthcare sector in sales and management for the world's largest Print Company where she consistently ranked in the top 5% of sales. Her work encompassed analyzing, designing, and implementing form management and inventory program systems to help streamline and reduce hospital costs.

Subsequently, Nancy worked for a U.S. based Skincare Company and spent time in Asia to build and develop sales and marketing teams for the company's product launches in South Korea, Japan, and Hong Kong.

Nancy attended Quinnipiac College in Connecticut and graduated cum laude with a degree in Business Administration and Marketing Management from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona.

When Nancy is not volunteering, she enjoys reading, traveling, and spending time with her family and friends who reside in countries around the globe.
